

Churchill

Sat 20th Jan

True story - the beleaguered British Prime Minister Winston Churchill (Brian Cox) in the days leading up to Allied D-Day landings in, France in 1944, clashing with his Allied political opponents U.S. General Dwight D. Eisenhower and British Field Marshal Montgomery, with support and devotion from his wife, the brilliant unflappable Clementine Churchill (Miranda Richardson).

A Man Called Ove

Sat 3rd Feb

A bitter-sweet comedy drama - 59 year old Ove is the curmudgeon on the block, he keeps a stern and watchful eye on the neighbourhood, when he is not visiting his wife's grave and contemplating suicide. When Parvaneh moves into the house across the road, it is the beginning of an unexpected friendship. In Swedish with subtitles.

My Cousin Rachel

Sat 17th Feb

Daphne Du Maurier costume drama - passion overtakes reason in this dark layered romance - starring Rachel Weisz. Believing his mysterious, beautiful cousin Rachel (Weisz) murdered the man who raised him, Philip (Sam Claflin), plots revenge. But, despite evidence that Rachel might be a killer, Philip finds himself falling deeply in love with her in this visually stunning, tension-laced film.

Hindolveston Village Screen Spring Season

Tickets £4.50 on the door, from Parker's Garage or 01263 860257

Village Hall 7pm for 7.30pm. Licenced bar, ice creams, filter coffee

Still Walking

Sat 3rd March

A Japanese family drama, set at an anniversary gathering to commemorate a death. The three family generations exchange gossip and memories, grievances and resentments, without great drama, but all the more truthfully. A film of great delicacy, warmth, humour and humanity that absorbs you into its world and resonates long after the moving final scenes. In Japanese with subtitles.

The Beguiled

Sat 17th March

An atmospheric thriller that unfolds at a secluded girls' boarding school in Civil War Virginia. When a wounded Union soldier, (Colin Farrell), is found near the school he's taken in by its headmistress (Nicole Kidman). As the young women provide refuge and tend to his wounds, the house is taken over with sexual tension. A gripping and haunting thriller also starring Kirsten Dunst and Elle Fanning.

Paddington 2

Sat 21st April

Paddington is happily settled with the Brown family, where he has become a popular member of the community, spreading joy and marmalade wherever he goes. Searching for the perfect present for his Aunt Lucy's birthday, Paddington spots a unique pop-up book and embarks upon a series of odd jobs to buy it. But the book is stolen, and it's up to Paddington and the Browns to unmask the thief!