Message from Inspector Ed Brown

Welcome to this month's newsletter. Our advice as the warmer weather approaches is to please bear in mind the safety of your valuables. I encourage you to lock your windows and doors when you are out and about also to keep your cars and vans locked and either remove or store your valuables out of sight.

Your views are important to us and if you believe there is an issue we need to make a priority then please come along to our next engagement or priority setting meeting, details on both are overleaf.

Message from your Engagement Officer PC Pete Davison

Are you a member of Neighbourhood Watch? Were you a member of Home Watch but never got around to switching across to the new scheme?

To find your nearest Neighbourhood Watch scheme you can go to the website www.ourwatch.org.uk and enter your postcode. Don't let it put you off if there's not a scheme in your area you can become the coordinator and sign up neighbours as and when you can. It's great way to meet your neighbours and all of the resources that you need are on the website, including information about setting up a scheme and the role of a coordinator.

If you haven't already done so, please also consider signing up to our free messaging service > www.norfolk.police.uk/services/police-connect
