Message from your Engagement Officer PC Pete Davison

HMRC Scam - Residents in Norfolk have recently been contacted by phone from fraudsters claiming to be from HM Revenue and Customs. The call usually starts with an automated message asking the victim to press a button to speak to a caseworker about court action. During some calls payment has been demanded over the phone with victims encouraged to pay the fine immediately by purchasing iTunes, Amazon or PSP/Xbox cards.

This is a scam, HMRC, banks, courts or the police would never call people in this manner or ask for personal or bank details over the phone or encourage the purchase of "gift cards" Anyone receiving a call of this type should hang up immediately and report it (using another phone if possible) via 101. All scam calls can also be reported to Action Fraud via their website www.actionfraud.police.uk
