The cherry blossom in the village has heralded in a beautiful Spring which lifts our spirits . We have lots of exciting events taking place in the village this Spring so we have a lot to look forward . Take a few moments out of your busy lives to stand still for a minute and listen to the bird song and insect life.

Queen's Platinum Jubilee

It's not long before we celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee . We have got some amazing events organised for the village . On the 21st May there will be a bunting workshop in the pavilion from 10-2 so why not drop in and make some bunting to decorate your house ready for the Jubilee?

On Friday 3rd June there is the quiz night at the Village Hall so start thinking about who's going to be in your team, kick off is at 8. The bar will be open from 7pm.

Bray's pork pies will be on offer!

On the Saturday there will be a free children's tea party, plenty of food and fun. It will take place either in the orchard at the Village Hall or in the Hall, weather depending.

The event will start at 2.30. Children will need to be accompanied by a responsible adult. The party is for children up to the age of 12 but this is a little fluid if slightly older children would have to be left at home. The event is free. Couple of things - we would need to know of any allergies and whether you mind photos of any of the events, with your children in, being taken. It would be great if everyone could wear red white and blue for the events .

There will be a fascinating archive exhibition on the 1950s running in the Hall. In the evening of the 4th there will an event at the village hall starting at 7.00. There will be free burgers (if you are veggie or vegan please let us know). The bar will be open and there will be music and fun !!!

On the Sunday in the afternoon (2.30 to 4.30) there will be an amazing fun and games event on the Rec with lots of really fun activities for everyone. Please feel free to bring a picnic. There will be FREE home brew first come first served !

Let's make Hindolveston the most fun place to be this weekend.

Everything is free apart from the drink at the bar in the village hall.

Now we need you to really help us

We are going to need to know numbers for food etc so we are asking everyone who wants to come to let us know and you will be given a token.

These will be put through your door.

We need to know which events you are coming to and numbers. We need to know by 15th May.

If you have family joining you will have to ask them to pay but it won't be too much.

I'm afraid no token no freebies.

We will have a bucket for donations to the Ukraine disaster fund at all events. If you have any loose change please think about donating it.

Well done !

On a recent litter pick the volunteers collected over 20 bags of rubbish. Thank you so much volunteers for an amazing effort A huge thank you to Peter Peloe and his wife for organising everything . There will be another litter pick later in the year so keep a look out for up dates volunteers always appreciated.

Come and meet our new:

Tea and cake to follow.

Yoga With Nell

Hi there, I have recently moved to the village and am a yoga teacher. I am excited to say that I will be starting a weekly yoga class here in Hindolveston Village Hall on Thursday 05 May 7-8pm and every Thursday thereafter. It is a hatha yoga class which means gently working with poses to ensure muscular tension and stiffness is released while also combining with calming breathwork. It will be mixed level – beginners are welcome! It is drop-in but you can contact me with the details below if you would like to reserve a space:

Book Swap

We have heard from BT that we can't use the phone box for the book swap .

We will try to think of an alternative idea. Any ideas would be gratefully received or if you have anything that you think would suitable please ring or email me .

A huge thank you for the amazing team of volunteers who made such a good job clearing out the container on the Rec car park . It was a horrible job and long overdue .
Thank you

Quiz Night June 3rd.
